

What does having a “good education” mean to you?

As part of the Forward Singapore exercise, we will refresh our understanding and common goals for education and lifelong learning in Singapore.

- How can we give every child a strong foundation and good start in life?
  - How can we build a culture and system of continuous learning that extends beyond our schooling years?
  - How can we continue to provide multiple opportunities and pathways to cater to diverse strengths and interests?
  - How can we cater to our students' diverse abilities, interest and aspirations with diverse learning models?
  - How can we foster an inclusive environment for those with special educational needs can lead independent and meaningful lives?
